Course Overview

History 101 surveys the origin and development of civilization in Europe, the Americas, Africa, West Asia, and East Asia up to 1500 CE.

Course Objectives

- 1. Survey the path to civilization in Africa, Asia, Europe, and the Americas.
- 2. Provide students with content knowledge about the origin of technologies and spread of religious and philosophical systems that remain important to the present day.
- 3. Enable students to identify the gradual process of globalization, early linkages between regions and peoples and ultimately the deep connections that joined all of earth's peoples into a single world system.

Student learning outcomes

- 1. Students will demonstrate critical thinking skills as they answer comparative, analytical questions on homework assignments and course examinations.
- 2. Students will demonstrate oral communication and critical thinking skills during class time as we discuss primary source documents and world history themes.
- 3. Students will demonstrate geographic literacy and global awareness on the map quiz and through exam questions that compare the philosophies and historical experiences of different peoples.

Assessment

Map Quiz: 15 points - 5%
Writing Assignment: 60 points - 20%
Exam #1: 60 points - 20%
Exam #2: 75 points - 25%
Final Exam: 90 points - 30%

A: 100-90% B: 89-80% C: 79-70% D: 69-60% F: 59-0%

Exams

You will take three multiple-choice examinations. It is important to review your notes and study guide before each examination. Makeup exams offered only under appropriate circumstances (e.g. illness, emergency, athletic participation).

Technology

Laptops and iPad are prohibited. Research shows that flickering screens distract you and other students.

Writing Assignment

You will write five paragraphs using documents in the sourcebook (available on canvas).

Part I: Write three paragraphs. Each paragraph (10-15 sentences) will discuss one theme (e.g. warfare, gender, philosophy, social inequality) and refer to four different documents in the sourcebook (12 total). Your paragraphs should demonstrate that you have read and understood the material by making incisive comments or quoting the text. This IS NOT an English essay with a traditional introduction and conclusion. The paragraphs are all separate statements.

Part II: Select two documents from the sourcebook. Do not use any of the documents that you already referred to in your thematic paragraphs. For each document, write a short paragraph (5-7 sentences) about what you find most relatable to the present era and what you find most objectionable.

Your work must be typed, 12-point font, and 1' margins. Be sure to proofread. Only formal, polished work will receive an A. Submit the assignment on canvas, to me in class, or via email attachment.

Attendance & Participation

There is no participation grade for History 101 and I do not take attendance. That said, it is impossible do well without taking lecture notes and attending class regularly.

Course Withdrawal Deadline

The last day for students to withdraw from a course and receive a grade of "W" is October 26, 2021.
